seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject american studies culture and applied geography grade 1 7 friedrich alexander university erlangen nuremberg lehrstuhl für auslandswissenschaft englischsprachige kulturen course an introduction to american economy language english abstract already in 1940 the u s became a so called service economy meaning that more than half of its work force is employed in producing intangibles by 1975 two thirds of the work force was part of the tertiary sector the tertiary sector also known as the service sector has become the number one driving force of the u s economy during the last decades according to recent statistics 2002 it nowadays accounts for 78 of the u s non agricultural employment and 76 of the u s private sector gross domestic product gdp additionally the u s is the world s premier services exporter 17 of worldwide services trade and importer 14 of worldwide services trade at the same time these figures alone necessitate a closer look however scientist even predict a continuous increase in the relevance of this industry for the u s economy expecting that almost 100 of additionally created jobs during the next decade will belong to the service sector this development is even more impressive considering the fact that the service sector was a subject almost not worth mentioning in the eyes of scientists up to the 1940s adam smith stated in the 18th century that services were unproductive of any value because they do not fix or realize themselves in any permanent subject or vendible commodity which endures after labor is passed another term used for the tertiary sector expresses very well the attitude toward this sector the residuum sector with the residual being the unproductive labor up to that point in history the merchandise producing industry the trade of goods nationally and internationally and the market s mechanisms and their expected development in future were the sole focus of economists the questions are which factors have lead to the impressive growth of this industry and what will the future hold for it this seminar paper will provide a glance at some of the numerous factors namely the specialization of labor growth of final demand and growth of goods producing industries and will than focus on the development and significance of the information and communication technology for the u s service sector however at the beginning the term service will be defined and some of its different understandings explained the fourth edition of principles and practice of geriatric medicine provides an account of the fundamental changes associated with ageing which are essential to our understanding and management of the elderly sick population the title has been updated to reflect in treatment options and medical conditions
